How to Make a Pinecone Bird Feeder

Birds get hungry in the cold months. You can make a snack for them! Ask a grown-up to help you.

What You Need

- One big pinecone
- A piece of string
- Sunflower seed butter
- A bowl of birdseed
- A spoon

What to Do

1. First, tie the string around the top of the pinecone.
2. Next, use the spoon to spread sunflower seed butter all over the pinecone.
3. Then, roll the pinecone in the bowl of birdseed until it is covered.
4. Last, hang your bird feeder on a tree branch outside.

Now watch from your window. Soon, birds will come to eat! Your bird feeder helps birds stay strong until spring.
